Guidelines for Parents / Carers

L'Chaim Chabad & MHC is committed to creating an environment where all its community can enjoy participation in our activities, events or programs without experiencing abusive, insulting, threatening or other anti-social behaviour.

We call on all parents/carers (and other spectators) associated with L'Chaim Chabad & MHC to:

- observe our organisation's guidelines for parents/carers;
- when necessary, politely and respectfully remind others of their obligations under these guidelines; and
- in the event of serious or ongoing breaches of these guidelines by another person, to report the matter to a person in charge so that appropriate action can be taken.

Our Guidelines for Parents/Carers

Your and other children and young people's participation and enjoyment in L'Chaim Chabad & MHC's activities, programs or events are our primary consideration. As parents and carers your role is to support these outcomes by:

- encouraging your child's participation in a positive manner;
- not engaging in behaviour that discriminates against any other person on the basis of gender, race, ability, colour, religion, language, politics or national or ethnic origin;
- not engaging in, or threatening to engage in, violent or physical confrontations with any other person;
- following any directions of L'Chaim Chabad & MHC Personnel & Volunteers including any request to modify your behaviour or to leave the premises following a breach of these guidelines.

Serious or ongoing breaches of these guidelines are not tolerated. Those who breach our guidelines risk being asked to leave an event and/or being prohibited from attending future events.
